We buy sterling silver with a careful appraisal for maximum value. As we are a matching service of only the highest quality, the silver should be in re-saleable condition. There should be no altered monograms, pitted knives, or other visible damage. The silver does not have to be polished, but it must be of good quality. We do not buy or resell silver plate. We do not buy or resell any other metals or precious metals. We will give you a careful evaluation for maximum value based on current market value.
